Wedding-Engagements.

Congressman and Mrs. James A. Hughes of West Virginia have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Hughes, to Harold Henderson Van Sant, of Ashland, Ky. Miss Hughes made her debut in Washington last season and is one of the most popular girls of the Congressional set. The wedding will take place in the early autumn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes in Huntington, W. Va.

A charming wedding took place last evening, when Miss Larena Frances Brooks became the bride of John Everett Cunningham at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. Brooks Reitz, 229 Clarendon street. The house was a bower of white lilacs, smilax and pink roses, and the ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, the Rev. W. S. Brooks, in the presence of a small family party. Later there was a large reception at Rauscher's.

The bride wore a lovely gown of ivory-toned satin, made on simple lines and trimmed with a motif of pearls. A quilling of chiffon outlined the court train. Her veil was of tulle, held to her coiffure with orange blossoms, and she carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Her sister, Miss Marion Brooks, her maid of honor, wore a gown of peach-colored satin, made on simple lines and carried Killarney roses. William Hunt, of Cambridge, was best man. The ushers were Harold Beckham, of Oklahoma; Joseph Bailey, of Lawrence, Mass.; and Jack Wright and Harry Grant, of this city.

The ballroom suite at Rauscher's was elaborately decorated for the reception and wedding supper. The mother of the bride, Mrs. J. H. Cunningham, of Franklin, Mass., assisted in receiving. The former, Mrs. M. Brooks Reitz, wore a handsome gown of black crepe, with an overdress of jet and gold lace. Mrs. Cunningham wore a stunning gown of turquoise blue crepe, with an overdress of crystals, shading from white to rich blue in a butterfly design.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham will spend their honeymoon at White Sulphur Springs, and will be at home after March 1 at Fontainebleau courts.

The marriage of Miss Marie Josephine Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris McFarlin Woodward, and Eugene Milton Sanchez, of St. Augustine, Fla., was solemnized last evening at the Dominican Chapel, Brookland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father, pastor of the Catholic University, and was witnessed by a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bride was decorated with orange blossoms sent to the bride by her brother, Horace Woodward, of Jacksonville, Fla. The bride wore a dainty gown of white tulle, embroidered in silver, with a chignon train outlined with silver, and silver slippers. Her tulle veil was caught up with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and orange blossoms. Miss Rebecca Woodward was her sister's maid of honor, and wore a blue tulle gown, with a panne velvet girdle of a darker shade of blue, and tulle veil to match her gown. The bridesmaids were Miss Anna Reymore, of New York; Miss Amy Langley, of Takoma Park; Miss Octavia Woodward, sister of the bride, and Miss Maitland Piper. They wore pink tulle dresses, with rose-colored sashes, and short pink veils, and carried bouquets of pink roses. The ushers were Thomas Wilson, cousin of the bride, and James J. Graham, of the Catholic University; Samuel Pasco, of New York; and James J. Graham, of the Catholic University. A small reception for the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom was held at the bride's parents, Mrs. Woodward, mother of the bride, who assisted in the ceremony. The couple left Washington after the reception for Hawaii, where they will spend the next six weeks.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely, or if you have a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing; no more headache, dizziness or straining for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight—ADVT.
